

FLEET MANAGEMENT SERVICES: FREEDOM TO FOCUS

When rail fleet details draw your eye off the ball, Trinity Rail helps you set your sights back on the big picture.

With railcars deployed across the nation's rail systems, managing your fleet can be a monumental undertaking. Keeping your fleet in working order, sifting through repair bills and staying current with regulatory compliance requirements are only the beginning. How do you fully leverage your rail fleet as a profitable asset instead of just handling vast amounts of railcar information?

Put Trinity Rail's team of experienced rail fleet management professionals to work for you. Let us monitor the myriad details so that you have the freedom to focus on your core business, not on maintenance management. Customers who rely on Trinity Rail for total fleet management enjoy convenience, confidence of regulatory compliance, cost-savings and the counsel of an industry insider. With our depth of engineering talent, years of experience and range of services and systems, Trinity Rail possesses expertise that most customers don't. We can develop solutions that help you improve your bottom line.

Trinity Rail's comprehensive services cover virtually every activity that keeps your car productive—modifications, repairs, compliance, billing, administration, inspections, taxes and more. Our maintenance management program covers your repair exposure, just like a full-service lease. Trinity Rail's fleet management services include:

Fleet management... it's all about providing the information and assistance you need to control your capital investment. Trinity Rail is constantly enhancing and investing in our information systems so that they're powerful enough and flexible enough to provide the data you need.

More than just an administrator, Trinity Rail is at the forefront of developments within the industry. In a continuing tradition, our employees participate in various AAR committees, serving as an advocate for the interests of rail fleet owners and operators. Through this involvement, we pass on insights and alerts, advising our customers of critical regulatory and industry developments.

For the freedom to concentrate on what you do best, choose a partner you can depend on. With Trinity Rail by your side, you can relinquish rail fleet administration to us and focus on the business of your business.
